

ASE International

No 16 ■ August/September 2022

Contents

- 2  About the journal
- 4  Editorial: Theme: SEND, inclusion and mental health
- 6  Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)
Jon Hickman and Rebecca Dixon-Watmough
- 16  Teachers' perceptions of Inquiry-Based Science Education (IBSE) and the implications for gender equality in science education
Tamjid Mujtaba, Sue Dale Tunnicliffe, Richard Sheldrake
- 29  Meeting the challenges of inclusion
Joanne Hills
- 33  News from our Partners
Gratnells
- 34  An insight into primary science education in Malaysia
Mohd Syafiq Aiman Mat Noor
- 42  How can mastery learning promote inclusion in the science classroom?
Jane Wragg, Sam Coombes, L.D. Smith, Ade Magaji, Roz Hornsby
- 48  We need to talk about...Differentiation
L.D. Smith, Sam Coombes, Ade Magaji, Jane Wragg, Roz Hornsby
- 53  Guidelines for authors
- 55  About ASE